

Nick Dinardo

November 8, 2010

Nicholas E. Dinardo, Sr., 75, a longtime resident and businessman of Point Marion, Pa., died quietly Wednesday, November 3, 2010, at his home with his loving family at his side. Born Sept. 27, 1935 at Rowes Run, Pa., he was a son of the late Dominic and Mary Sadar Dinardo. A 1954 graduate of Uniontown High School, he was a member of St. Hubert's R.C. Church, the F.O.E. # 1932, and a V.F.W Post 747 Social Member, all in Point Marion. Nick came to Point Marion in 1955 after learning the barber trade from his father, and started in business with Ray Foreman. Soon, he bought out Mr. Foreman, and continued to operate his own barber shop for over 50 years. With his retirement in the spring of 2010 came the closing of the last barber shop left in Point Marion. Many children of the area received their first haircut from "Nick the Barber", and men from all over Point Marion and Southeastern Greene County made a stop at Nick's Barber Shop part of their regular routine. He is survived by his wife of 50 years, Sandra Dolan Dinardo; a son Nicholas Dinardo, Jr. of Belle Vernon, Pa.; two daughters and their husbands, Diane and Rodney Baker of Cheat Lake, W.Va., and Tina and Edward Baker of Morgantown, W.Va.; five grandchildren, Eric, Nathan, Amy, Shane and Brandon Baker; a brother Thomas Dinardo of Chalfont Borough, East Pittsburgh, Pa.; and by many friends and customers. Friends will be received in the Richard R. Herod Funeral Home, Point Marion, on Sunday from noon until 8:00 p.m., and Monday, November 8, 2010 until 10:30 a.m., when a prayer service will be held, followed by a Funeral Mass at 11:00 a.m. in St.

Hubert's R.C. Church, with Rev. Fr. Andrew Kawecki officiating. Interment follows in Evergreen Memorial Park, Point Marion. F.O.E. services will be held Sunday at 6:00 p.m., and Parish Wake service will follow at 7:45p.m.

“ I am very sad to see this after so many years, I remember Mr. Dinardo as a child he would cut my hair, he was always friendly and always gave me a sucker after finishing.

RIP- I will need another haircut when I see you again please.

“ I was very sorry to hear of the loss of one of my best friends in Point Marion. Nicky and I, in our younger days, travelled many miles together. We spent a good deal of time together until I enlisted into the U.S. Navy and then moved away from Point Marion. I often thought of Nicky and whether he was still cutting hair. He cut my hair for many years while I was still in high school and college. My thoughts and prayers are with Nick and his family. May God comfort you all at this time and the loss of one of my very good friends.

“ We're sorry to hear about your loss. Even though we haven't seen Nick for some time, I have fond memories of "Nick the Barber". He not only cut my hair, but also cut my Dad's and my Grandad's hair and gave my son his first haircut. Our thoughts and prayers are with you and your family.
