

Nilus L. (Kirby) Swaney

January 1, 1933 - April 27, 2013

Nilus L. (Kirby) Swaney, 80, a long-time resident of Point Marion, Pa., passed away Tuesday, April 23, 2013, in the Ruby Memorial Hospital, Morgantown, with her loving daughter at her side. Born in Morgantown on Feb. 28, 1933, she was a daughter of the late George and Vivian (Watson) Kirby. She will long be remembered for her strength and determination throughout her years of illness, and always endured everything with a smile on her face. She is survived by her daughter, Nilus "Missy" Swaney, and son-in-law, David Fulmer, of Morgantown; son William "Butch" Swaney of Ohio, one very special granddaughter, Shayla Shriver; a brother, Ray Kirby of Delaware, Ohio; a dear friend, Viola Bair; and by a number of nieces, nephews and cousins. Also deceased is her husband Harry Swaney in 1986. Friends will be received in the Richard R. Herod Funeral Home, Point Marion, on Saturday from 2 – 4 and 6 – 8 PM. A funeral service will begin at 8 PM with Rev. Scott Teets officiating. Private interment will be in Little Arlington Section of Evergreen Memorial Park Point Marion.
