“ Aunt Norma, I will always remember you. You were the sweetest soul heaven ever sent to earth. My children and I know there will never be a woman as wonderful in our lives again. Memories.. I have a million all are filled with love and laughs and tears. You were so special to us all. Everything from teaching me how to drive, (_oh poor little thing) to saving my son from snakes and wasps. To getting toy blenders out of Crystal's hair and her endless rats. You were the most patient, kind, understanding woman who has ever lived. I will miss you until I come to be with you and our family in heaven. Rest in Peace. Your in heaven making everyone laugh. Love you so very much.

“ My dear, sweet, loving, kind, funny Aunt Norma. My fondest memories will always be the way she made me laugh. She could make the darkest day bright again with her contagious sense of humor. One time, when I visited her in Point Marion, there was a bat in the house. I was scared to death, but she picked it off the curtain and held it out to me and said "It's nothing but a little bat". I nearly fainted, and she started laughing, and naturally she got me laughing, and then we couldn't stop until our sides hurt. After we grew up, we did not see as much of each other, only once every few years, but once we were together again, it was as though the years in between had not passed. I know that when we meet again, it will feel the same. She will remain in my heart forever. Rest in peace Aunt Norma, until we meet again.

“ Dear family; It grieved me to read of Norma's passing. I remember fondly, as a small boy, of getting to visit with aunt Ella and getting to visit with my cousins Norma, Norman, and Emmitt and playing at the farm. Our condolences to all.
