“ Sending prayers and our sincerest sympathies to the family of Paul Bierer. He was a classmate to Keith and a friend to both of us from early school days through high school. A sweeter and nicer man you will never meet, unless his son carries those traits. A hard working man who was kind and generous to his family and others in need. He never deserved to suffer. God give you rest, Paul. You can now be at peace.

“ Paul always possessed a pleasant and pleasing disposition from childhood and all through his life. He and Becky faced many challenges and losses during their life together -- Paul always kept an upbeat spirit.

Now his struggles are over and he can be at peace. Much credit to Becky, Owen, Daisy and Paul's sweet grandchildren -- all were so great in supporting him and showing their love for him. May they receive the strength they need to heal. Prayers for them as they go on without Paul present in their lives. God Bless Paul in Heaven. He fought a very brave life. We love and will miss his smile and presence too. -- Carol Lee Forte & Ashlee Walls.
