

Ralph S. Beatty

August 10, 1941 - February 27, 2022

Ralph Sherman Beatty, 80, of Cheat Lake, W.Va., passed away unexpectedly Sunday, February 27, 2022, in the Mon Health Medical Center in Morgantown. Born near Point Marion, Pa., on August 10, 1941, he was a son of the late Lester and Geraldine (Harless) Beatty.

Ralph attended the former Point Marion High School, and honorably served in the U.S. Navy aboard the USS Antietam. He retired in 2003 as the Assistant Facilities Director for West Virginia University after 30 years employment with the university.

Surviving is his wife of 57 years, Shirley (Dennis) Beatty; two sons, Michael Beatty and wife Jodie, and Mark Beatty, all of Gans, Pa.; six grandchildren, Elijah, Kyle, Kayann, Elizabeth, Lindsay and Lauren; one great-grandson, Paxton "Pac-man"; and one sister, Betty Bird and her husband Randy, of Point Marion.

One brother, John Beatty, is also deceased.

Honoring his wishes, there will be no public services. Arrangements are in the care of the Richard R. Herod Funeral Home, Point Marion.

“ Shirley and family, So sorry to hear of your loss. Think of you often and the things that we used to do at your Mom's and Dad's. Remember visiting Ralph and his family and always enjoyed those visits. Weekends at your family place was so much fun. Ralph will be dearly missed but will be looking down and smiling watching all you. Hugs to all “ Remember Ralph and growing up beside him and his Mom and Dad in Crystal -- Good old days. Also, rode to work with Ralph and others after graduating high school and working at WVU. He was always on time picking us up. Ralph was a hard worker and dependable guy. Praying for you, Shirley, and the entire family at this time.
