

Robin R. Mankins

February 25, 1957 - July 22, 2025

Robin R. Mankins, 68, of Lumberport, W.Va., and formerly of Cleveland, Ohio, passed on to her Lord and Savior on Tuesday, July 22, 2025, with her family at her bedside. Born in Clarksburg, W.Va. on Feb. 25, 1957, she was a daughter of the late Paul and Coletta Reynolds.

Her faith in Christ guided her every step. She will be remembered for her joyful spirit and her love of God's word. Her finest accomplishment was being a believer in Jesus Christ, and being a loving wife, mother and grandmother to her family.

Surviving is her husband of 51 years, Michael K. Mankins; four children, Michael Mankins, II (Kim), Tracy Mankins, Samuel Mankins (Susan) all of Ohio, and Amber Mihalko (Randy) of Lake Lynn; 20 grandchildren, 17 great-grandchildren, two brothers, David and John, and three sisters, Debbie, Tina and Melissa; a number of nieces, nephews and cousins; and a special friend, Debbie Stout.

She was preceded in death by a brother Paul, a sister Linda, and her in-laws, Gene and Sylvia Mankins.

Friends will be received in the Richard R. Herod Funeral Home, Point Marion, Philip S. Rishel, Director, on Monday, July 28th, from 1 until the 3:00 PM hour of a Memorial Service, with Rich Schimansky officiating. Interment follows at the Lions Cemetery, Lumberport, W.Va. at 4:30 PM

In lieu of flowers, memorials may be offered to the Point Marion Christian Church, 432 Morgantown St., Point Marion, Pa. 15474

Such a sweet lady. Although I never physically met you. I talked with you over the phone several times. You prayed with me when my daughter was very sick and I will never forget the strength you gave me to get through such a difficult time. You mailed me a prayer cloth to keep in her bed ❤️. You were an angel on this earth that earned her wings. Fly high..... ❤️ 🙏
