

Ruben C. Lomax

February 20, 1936 - May 26, 2026

Ruben C. Lomax, 90, of Uniontown, Pa., died Tuesday, May 26, 2026, at his home following a courageous battle with cancer. Ruben was born in Wineburg, Cape Town, South Africa on February 20, 1936, a son of the late Clifford M. and Eva Ann (White) Lomax.

He was educated in South Africa, attended welding school there, and spent his working career as a service engineer for O.C.E. Printing in the Washington D.C. area. After retirement, he and his wife returned to her native Fayette County.

Surviving is his beloved wife of 44 years, Donna L. Dils, and a number of friends, neighbors and cousins. Ruben had a wonderful sense of humor, and a quick and easy smile, and will be dearly missed.

The middle child of three, he was predeceased by one brother, one sister, and also his brother-in-law, Bobby Dils in 2001.

Friends will be received in the Richard R. Herod Funeral Home, Point Marion, on Friday, May 29th, from 11 AM until the 1:30 PM hour of service, with Pastor Kathy Griffith officiating.

In lieu of flowers, memorials may be offered to any local humane society.
