

Steven Ray Areford

April 10, 1960 - February 6, 2020

Steven R. Areford, 59, of Westover, passed away unexpectedly Thursday, February 6, 2020, at his home. Born in Morgantown on April 10, 1960, he was a son of Allan and Marilee (VanDruff) Areford, of Morgantown.

A 1978 graduate of University High School, Steven was a talented artist, and skilled at building or repairing just about anything. He formerly was the lead carpenter for Smola Construction, and more recently had worked for Northco Corp. as a machinist. Many times he was the one called on to fix or repair the mistakes of others. In his spare time, he enjoyed being outside, hunting and fishing.

In addition to his loving parents, surviving are two daughters, Tiffany and husband Jason Leonard of Bloomington, IN, and Heather Areford, of Morgantown, and their mother, Cindy (Fisher) Areford, also of Morgantown; a grandson Gage Leonard; one brother, Wesley and wife Tammy Areford of Morgantown and a sister, Wendy and husband Daniel Hewett of Parrish, FL; a niece, Holly and husband Tyler Grubb and a nephew, Aaron Hewett.

Arrangements are in the care of the Richard R. Herod Funeral Home, Point Marion. A Memorial Service for family and friends is being planned, and will be announced.

“ Steven, such a loss. With your artistic talent maybe you can paint us rainbows. Keep the angels laughing, but don't get into mischief.. Allan, Marilee and family_our deepest sympathy. I sit and look at his picture and smile, remembering the day at Lauras and how much I enjoyed laughing with Steven. Again our condolences and love. Carol and Frank
