

Steven Craig McClead Sr.

July 3, 1961 - January 7, 2017

Steven Craig “Monk” McClead, Sr., 55, of Dilliner, Pa., passed away Saturday, January 7, 2017, in the UPMC-Presbyterian Hospital in Pittsburgh. Born July 3, 1961 in Columbus, Ohio, he was the son of the late Henry and Barbara (Lux) McClead.

A 1979 graduate of Albert Gallatin High School, he was employed in home remodeling for most of his career. Monk enjoyed being outdoors, spending time with his friends, and was a great fan of the Pittsburgh Steelers.

He is survived by his lifelong companion, Kathy Mankins; a son, Steven C. McClead, Jr. of Bobtown; a daughter Lisa (Naylor) Varano of Uniontown; one sister, Brenda Horvwalt of Dilliner; and many nieces, nephews, and friends.

Also deceased are two brothers, Ronnie McClead and Brian McClead, and a sister, Debbie Maust.

Friends will be received in the Richard R. Herod Funeral Home, Point Marion, on Saturday from 1 – 5 PM. Funeral Services will begin at 5:00 PM, with Rev. French Jenkins officiating.

“ We will miss you Uncle Monk..... Mike and I were just talking about how you gave him the name "Gauldy" when the 2 of you were fishing and you said "YOU BETTER WATCH THAT POLE MIKE" and the next thing you know the pole was flying in between his legs straight into the water", Mike will miss you more than words can explain, so much history between the two of you... Camping Trips, Road trips, Summers at Big Bear and so much more..... Fly High....
