

Susan E. Cumpston

May 24, 1950 - April 5, 2026

It is with heavy hearts that we remember and celebrate the life of a truly kind-hearted woman whose greatest joy was her family. Susan E. Cumpston, 75, of Mapletown, died Easter Sunday morning, April 5, 2026, at her home following a lengthy battle with cancer. Born in Morgantown on May 24, 1950, she was the daughter of the late Ronald and Bertha (Stump) Petrucci. She was a source of warmth, compassion, and unwavering love to all who knew her.

A 1968 graduate from University High School in Morgantown, Sue retired as the front end manager of the Giant Eagle grocery in Waynesburg. Her life was defined by the simple but powerful acts of caring – always putting others before herself, offering a listening ear, a comforting hug, or a gentle word when it was needed most. She had a special way of making everyone feel valued and at home in her presence.

Her husband, Robert B. Cumpston, passed away on Dec. 12, 2023. Also deceased is her son, Robert Cumpston Jr. in 2008, a granddaughter, Emma Cumpston in 2018; and a brother, Ronnie Petrucci.

Above all, she cherished her family. Whether through shared meals, laughter-filled gatherings, or quiet moments together, she created a bond that will remain unbroken. Her love was constant, her support endless, and her pride in her family immeasurable. Surviving are her loving family; son, Daniel Cumpston and wife Tina and daughter Kimberly Cumpston, all of Mapletown; seven grandchildren, T.J. and Anthony Wise, Jimmy and Alyssa Vernon, Marcus Cumpston, Sara Jeffries and Jenna Cumpston; seven great-grandchildren; and a brother, Jack Petrucci, of Cassville, WVa., along with a number of nieces and nephews and their families.

Friends will be received in the Richard R. Herod Funeral Home, Point Marion, on Friday from 4 – 8 PM, and Saturday, from 10 until the 11:00 AM hour of service, with Pastor Kenneth Haines officiating. Interment follows in Monongahela Hill Cemetery, Greensboro.
