

Tammy Jo Hixon

April 12, 1971 - December 14, 2021

Tammy Jo Hixon, 50, of New Geneva, Pa., passed away Tuesday, December 14, 2021, in the Uniontown Hospital, following a lifelong disability. Born in Morgantown on April 12, 1971, she was a daughter of the late William D. and Helen (Shipp) Hixon.

Tammy enjoyed watching countless hours of the comedy “Friends’ on the television, and, when she was able, to go to town shopping with always a stop at McDonalds. She was lovingly cared for at home by her mother and sisters, and, after her mother’s passing, assisted by the Ospta Visiting Nurses, Kerri and Amy, who were so kind and compassionate with Tammy.

Surviving are her five sisters, Norma Gardner of Smithfield, Merle Dillow of Lake Lynn, Esther (Joe) Moats of New Geneva, Debra (Pete) Zembar of Haydentown, and Dianna Hixon of New Geneva; and a number of nieces and nephews and their families.

Private services for her family will be held Friday in the Richard R. Herod Funeral Home, Point Marion, with interment in Cedar Grove Cemetery in New Geneva.
