

Thomas J. Mankins Sr.

March 31, 1935 - December 10, 2022

Thomas Jefferson Mankins, 87, of Dilliner, Pa., died Saturday, December 10, 2022 at the Ruby Memorial Hospital, following a brief illness. Born in Lake Lynn on March 31, 1935, he was a son of the late Catherine Mankins Graham.

Also known as “Feets” or “June” by his many friends, he was retired from Ford Motors assembly plant in Ohio, having worked there for 33 years. After moving back to the Lake Lynn area, he and his wife were active members of the Redeemed Baptist Church in Point Marion.

Surviving are two children, Kathy Mankins and her fiancé Raymond Atkinson, and Robert Mankins, all of Dilliner; three grandchildren, Steven McClead and wife Marisa, Thomas Mankins, III and wife Robin, and Natasha Fields; five great-grandchildren, Ashley, Jenna, Tracy, Thomas, IV, and Kayla; his daughter-in-law, Pam Williams of Connellsville; and a number of nieces and nephews and their families.

His wife, Esther (Ruble) Mankins passed away on June 25, 2006. Also deceased is his son, Thomas J. Mankins, II on November 2, 2022; three brothers, Charles “Gene” Mankins, Albert “Jack” Mankins and Melvin “Jim” Mankins; and three sisters, Betty Lewis, Joan “Nan” Burnette and Pearl Rose.

The family will receive friends in the Richard R. Herod Funeral Home, Point

Marion on Saturday from 3 – 6 PM. Funeral services will begin at 6:00 PM, with his nephew, Rev. French Jenkins, officiating. Private interment will be in Wolf's Cemetery, Dilliner at a later date.
