“ My heart felt sympathies to all of Tods family. I didn't have the privilege to get to know Tod after our schools days. But I never forgot his warm smile and consideration and kindness to other kids. We reconnected on Facebook a little in recent years and I was not surprised to see he turned out to be such a good man. I know he must be missed terribly. I'm very sorry for your loss and the loss to everyone whose lives he touched. Bernie Galanko

“ When I first met Tod, it was at Tekko (Anime Convention). Both our daughters were in the rave and he was outside the door waiting for Paige, I was waiting for Angela, and a group of girls we had two rooms with. I would meet them outside the door at midnight. It was refreshing to see another parent willing to take the time to make sure his daughter was safe. If you had ever met Tod you would know what a caring father he was. I look back on the times we shared although few, and I can't help but smile. Our deepest sympathies we send to Gina, Paige, Alison, and Tod's family. The Pencoske Family
