

Vivian P. Chadderton

April 4, 1942 - January 22, 2022

Vivian P. “Grammy” Chadderton, 79, of Dilliner, Pa., passed away peacefully Saturday, January 22, 2022, at her home, following a lengthy illness. Born in Madsville, W.Va. on April 4, 1942, she was a daughter of the late Ray and Helen Jean (McClain) Jackson.

She was a faithful member for many years of the Gospel Tabernacle Assembly of God Church in Mount Morris, where she assisted with home ministries and funeral dinners. She was also a volunteer for years at the Alliance and Trinity Christian Schools. Known affectionately by many as the “Mayor” of Dilliner, she also worked for many years at the election polls in Dilliner. Vivian was a loving wife, mother and grandmother who enjoyed looking after the needs of her family, and was never hesitant to share with others her love for her Lord and Savior.

Surviving is her loving and devoted husband of 60 years, David Chadderton; one son David D. Chadderton and wife Patty of Dilliner; a granddaughter, Hillery Chadderton of Pittsburgh; several nieces and nephews and their families; and many friends.

In addition to her parents, she was predeceased by her two brothers, Wayne D. Jackson and Kenneth E. Jackson.

Friends will be received in the Richard R. Herod Funeral Home, Point Marion, Philip S. Rishel, Director, on Wednesday from 2 – 4 and 7 – 9 PM, and Thursday in the Gospel Tabernacle Assembly of God from 10 until the 11:00 AM hour of service, with Pastor Joe Adams officiating. Interment follows in Cedar Grove Cemetery, Mount Morris.

In lieu of flowers, the family requests memorial donations to Amedisys Hospice, 2181 McClellandtown Rd., Masontown, PA 15461

“ Dave, So sorry to hear of Vivian's passing. Of course we remember the hot rod trip to Columbus and enjoying Vivian's company, as well as our visits to your house during the '32 build. Always gracious and instantly accepting and embracing Nicholas when they meant. We know she suffered for some time, which from our own experience know was not easy. Given her belief in God and strong spiritually we all know she is now in the place of peace. Look forward to seeing you soon.

“ Our sincere condolences to Dave, Dave Jr., Hillery and their families in the loss of their beloved Vivian. Dave and Vivian were wonderful neighbors and friends to my Mother and Dad for many years. Vivian had many talents; one of which were her baking items that were always delicious. She had enormous faith and treated all others with such kindness. We know she is in Heaven. May each of you be given the healing strength to adjust to her being gone to a much happier place now. Again, very sorry for your loss. Vivian is now an Angel.

“ *Have known Vivian for 60 plus years and always seen her smile and chuckle over things. Have never seen her sad. Always admired her faith in God and saw his presence within her. She loved God, loved her family and loved life. May God grant her eternal peace and happiness in the hereafter and May she Rest In Peace. Lots of love and sympathy to Dave, David and her family.
