

William W. Gardner, Sr.

April 29, 1954 - September 13, 2020

William Wilson Gardner, Sr., 66, of Dilliner, Pa., passed away Sunday, September 13, 2020, following a lengthy illness. Born in Uniontown, Pa. on April 29, 1954, he was a son of the late Albert F. and Quindora Loretta (Adams) Gardner.

He had formerly worked constructing long-wall equipment for the local mines.

Surviving are three children, Scott Gardner and Shana Gardner, both of New Geneva, Pa., and Jessi Gardner of Masontown, Pa.; 10 grandchildren, seven step-grandchildren, six great-grandchildren, and one great-great-grandchild. Also surviving is a sister, Heaven Namish, and a special friend and caregiver, Bobbie Keener.

He was predeceased by two sons, William "Dink" Gardner, Jr. in 2006 and Brian "B.J." Gardner in 2013; a sister, Manila Newman, and two great-grandchildren, Gavin Wolfe and Tyler Murray.

A gathering of family and friends is being planned, and will be announced.

Tribute Wall

“ He been in my life and always be with me daddy I love you

Jessi Gardner - September 14, 2020 at 09:21 PM