

Wilma (Mason) Harper

November 11, 1935 - November 7, 2020

Wilma L. (Mason) Harper, 84, of Point Marion, passed away Saturday, November 7, 2020, at the home of her son, where she had been residing for the past several months. Born in Davison Mine, Springhill Township on Nov. 11, 1935, she was a daughter of the late William and Ethel (Thomas) Mason.

A graduate of the former Point Marion High School, Wilma retired as the head dietitian after nearly 40 years with the San Francisco General Hospital. After returning to Fayette County, she attended the Mount Calvary Baptist Church in Fairchance.

She is survived by her son, Max Mason and wife Darla of Point Marion; two daughters and their husbands, Sherry and Archie West of Fairchance, Pa., and Diane and Patrick Patterson of Atlanta, Georgia; eight grandchildren, Maggie Mason, Archie West, III, Justus Williams, Stevelan Harper, Jenelle Madison, Eddie Harper, Issac Mason, Shannon Downing, and their families and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.

She was the last of her family, having been preceded in death by her two brothers, Alfred and Ernest Mason, and two sisters, Vera Mason and Peggy King. Also deceased is her son, Albert E. Harper, Jr. on Feb. 6, 2019.

Friends will be received in the RICHARD R. HEROD FUNERAL HOME, Point

Marion, on Thursday from 6 – 9 PM and Friday from 10 until the 11:00 AM hour of service, with Pastor Marvin Harris officiating.

This morning, December 27, 2020, I awoke with my friend, Wilma heavy on my mind. Wilma and I shared the same birthday. I had not heard from my dear friend in several months as she had come to mind often. Her phone was disconnected and I knew of no way to reach her. I was inspired this morning to check this way and was sad to hear of my dear friend's passing. Rest in the arms of our Saviour, my sister. I will always cherish our friendship, because you were a true friend with a heart of compassion.
